

American Association of Integrative MedicineSM

James F. Farley, DC, MSSS

is formally acknowledged for proficiency and high achievement in the field of integrative health care and has been accepted into membership as a

Diplomate

with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto, so long as annual membership requirements are met and the American Association of Integrative Medicine Oath of Membership is upheld.

Robert L. O'Block, MDiv, PhD, PsyD, DMin
Founder and Publisher

Zhaoming Chen, MD, PhD, MS, FAAIM
Chair, American Association of Integrative Medicine

Diplomate awarded
May 2015

Expiration date
October 2018

Identification Number
2197

This designation is the property of the American Association of Integrative Medicine and conveys competency that the individual has met the minimum requirements to attain this designation based on the specifications set forth by the American Association of Integrative Medicine, AAIM. AAIM, requires designation holders to remain in good standing by being current with yearly maintenance fees or yearly membership dues, submitting the required 30 continuing education units every three years and upholding AAIM'S code of conduct.