

American Association of Integrative MedicineSM

James F. Farley, DC

is formally acknowledged for proficiency and high achievement in the field and has been awarded the credential

Board Certified in Integrative Medicine, BCIM[®]

with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto, so long as annual membership requirements are met and the American Association of Integrative Medicine Oath of Membership is upheld.

Robert L. O'Block, MDiv, PhD, PsyD, DMin
Founder and Publisher

Zhaoming Chen, MD, PhD, MS, FAAIM
Chair, American Association of Integrative Medicine

Date Awarded
December 2014

Identification Number
2197

Expiration Date
December 2017

*In compliance with third-party accreditation, American Association of Integrative Medicine, AAIM, requires certification holders to remain in good standing by being current with maintenance fees or membership dues, submitting the required 30 continuing education units every three years for recertification, and upholding the AAIM's code of conduct. This certificate is the property of the AAIM and that the individual has met the minimum requirements to attain this credential based on specifications set forth by the American Association of Integrative Medicine.